TO BE READ TO THE CHURCH

Dear Brethren:

Christian greetings.

Values and character are debatable topics of the day, all ages and social classes are bombarded by immorality. Values make a difference for human beings, they are the backbone of emotions and spirituality; they are the standards that guide us toward social transformation and personal achievement. Values are not acquired by chance but transmitted with firmness and love

The Lord has given us tools to help us teach our children spiritual values through the Girls of Excellence and Moral Standards (GEMS)-the junior arm of the Women's Ministries Department designed for girls and young women ages 13 to 25.

According to our calendar of events, Sunday 28, April, 2024 is scheduled for zonal GEMS Retreat. 'Come fill your Cup, Mighty Woman of Valor: It's about character, not roles', will be the day's emphasis. Zones are, therefore asked to plan and meet the needs of the young ladies within their various congregations.

I wish you happy planning and a successful retreat.

Your sister in Christ
